Leicester —
Monday, 23?

Dear Wallcut;

If I don't appear at the Office by 12 o'clk. tomorrow (Tuesday) please send to me at once by mail all letters you may have for me; let William take them to office at that time. I am likely to be detained here until Thursday; a young Soldier (Jon^a. Farr's youngest son) to whom I have been guardian for a dozen years or more has come home with a foot so much injured by a gun-shot wound that amputation will probably be necessary; and he expects on that day — Thursday — to go to Boston, to the hospitals, for that purpose, and I shall stay to accompany him.

V32, P204

If he decides to put off going to another week, I shall perhaps not go to Boston at all this week. So, in either event, I am pretty sure not to be with you tomorrow; and shall be looking for the letters from you tomorrow eve.

If you have a letter from Buffum for me — with money — that you will please retain, & notify me. Send all others.

In haste

S. M Fr
